SOME TOP FACTS FROM THE 2011 POPULATION AND HOUSING CENSUS

- The 2011 Population and Housing Census with using several new approaches marked the history as the most advanced statistical survey of its kind in Slovakia. Residents were allowed, for the first time in history, to choose whether to fill out the Census Sheets in paper or electronic form by the Internet.
- The 2011 Population and Housing Census was by content the most extensive survey on population. The legal law imposed the duty to participate in the Census on all citizens of the Slovak Republic and foreigners residing in the territory of the Slovak Republic in the point in time relevant to census (except for foreigners who enjoyed diplomatic privileges and immunities).
- Census 2011 was one of the most important statistical surveys of its kind internationally. According to Regulation (EC) of the European Parliament and of the Council No. 763/2008 it counted for the first time in history in the same year (2011) inhabitants, houses and dwellings in all EU Member Countries, using uniform or comparable definitions of surveyed data. Census 2011 was part of a global program of population and housing censuses, coordinated by the UN in collaboration with Eurostat.

HOUSING AND DWELLINGS CENSUS

- Information on houses and dwellings in the Slovak Republic were surveyed together with data on population.

The Point in Time Relevant to the 2011 Population and Housing Census was midnight between Friday, the 20th May 2011 and Saturday, 21st May 2011.

- The subject matter of housing census were all residential buildings (including unoccupied buildings) marked by registration number and other inhabited or occupied objects at the Point in Time Relevant to the Census except diplomatic missions of foreign countries.
- According to the Act. No. 263/2008 Coll. on the Population and Housing Census in 2011 obligation to provide information about houses had owners or managers of houses or tenants of houses.
- As dwellings for census were considered habitable rooms or their sets with accessories organized to functional units with self-closing, which were intended for permanent housing.
- The obligation to provide information about dwellings had owners or managers of apartments or tenants or lodgers.
